"J. CHARLES THAMER"

Appreciation of his year as Commander of Fullerton Commandery

1926

demand of you and went about in a fine business-like way to meet every responsibility the honored ~~position~~ <sup>office</sup> placed upon you.

I want now to tell you and I am happy to do so, that every Sir Knight of our splendid Commandery <sup>was</sup> ~~is~~ delighted with your leadership. The achievements of the year have been remarkable. The Commandery was not only honored by winning the prize in the competitive drill of the Commanderies of this District, but on many occasions when we had distinguished visitors we were proud to have everything connected with our beautiful Ritual carried through with such order and precision and your personal bearing so dignified and <sup>always admired</sup> ~~admirable~~. <sup>you are added interest</sup> ~~to the ceremony~~ Not only have we been satisfied with these splendid achievements, but the fine spirit you have created in a social way is appreciated. You have been thoughtful, wise and enterprising during the entire year. You have given unreservedly of your time, ever ready, not only to fill every stated demand, but to answer <sup>every</sup> ~~any~~ call made upon you by virtue of being our Commander.

CHARLES C. CHAPMAN

You have made an enviable record and as you give up your <sup>office</sup> seat to a successor you should be happy that everything pertaining to our Commandery, so far as your leadership is concerned, is in splendid condition. <sup>Certainly</sup> You have no apology to make.

As an expression not only of our appreciation, but as a token of affection of every Sir Knight of this Commandery, I present to you, Eminent Sir, this Past Commander's Jewel.

This may be worn with commendable pride and satisfaction. Let it tell everyone who looks upon it that you have rendered faithful ~~and~~ efficient <sup>honorable</sup> service to your Commandery, and may it never fail to tell you of the affectionate regard the entire Commandery has for you.
